

COMPLAINT FORM

TYPE OR PRINT CLEARLY. Please be specific, and describe who, what, when, where, why, and how the issue happened, including the past medical/surgical history, symptoms and condition (past and present) of your animal. Any correspondence, records receipts of invoices supporting your allegation should be included. If you have physical evidence, or if you have a deceased pet that is being temporarily preserved in a frozen state, it is important for you to retain that evidence in its original condition. Also, enclose any copies of records or reports from any other veterinarian that has been engaged for a second opinion or as a consultant, including his or her name, address and work telephone number. Please note that we do not have the authority to investigate fees you believe are too high or to intervene in fee disputes.
